Cabinet Crisis in Spain.

The Siege of Puycerda Abandoned by the Carlists.

Meeting of the Permanent Committee of the French Assembly.

FRANCE.

Official Report on Bazaine's Escape.

PARIS, September 4.—The official report of the commission appointed to investigate the circumstances of the escape of Bazaine implicates the jailors, and states that they were instigated by Col. Villette, Bazaine's aid de-camp, to facilitate the prisoner's flight, but acquits the garrison of the fort of complicity in the affair.

Meeting of the Permanent Committee.

A meeting of the Permanent Committee of the National Assembly was held yesterday. Buffet, President of the Assembly, presided. M. De Mahy, a Deputy of the Left, complained of the continued rigorous treatment by the Government of newspapers in the municipalities. He also called particular attention to a speech of Captain Mun at a meeting in La Vendee, in which he advised his hearers to follow the example of the inhabitants of that Department at the time of the first revolution, and draw their swords against their enemies.

Chabaud la Tour, Minister of the Interior, replied that the Government would make inquiries into this matter.

M. Tirard, another Deputy of the Left, complained of the unequal treatment of newspapers by the Government. Some, he charged, were favored, and others were oppressed. He also made a complaint against the restrictions placed upon the introduction and circulation of foreign journals and of the suspension of a newspaper in Bordeaux because it stated that Marshal MacMahon was coldly received during his recent journies. M. Tirard declared that notwithstanding the proceedings by the Government, the Paris Figaro was allowed to incite citizens to hatred of each other. He demanded a cessation of these rigorous measures.

Chabaud la Tour justified the action of the Government in suspending the journal in Bordeaux and in prohibiting the publication of eight other Bonapartist papers because of the reproduction in their columns of attacks which were of a serious nature. He stated, however, that he regretted the necessity for such proceedings.

M. Picard asked the Government to enforce the decision of the Assembly abolishing the Empire. He said that M. Berger, a Bonapartist candidate for the Assembly in the Department of Marne et Loire, had issued a circular to the electors ignoring this decision.

Chabaud la Tour said he disapproved of this circular, but was unwilling to interfere, because it would be an invasion of electoral liberty.

Several members of the Extreme Right uttered their protests against the recognition of Marshal Serrano's Government in Spain, because it was opposed to the interests of France.

Chabaud la Tour replied that France had acted in harmony with other powers. He added that large bodies of troops had been despatched to the frontier to preserve strict neutrality.

Marshal Bazaine.

PARIS, September 4.—Le Bien Public says Marshal Bazaine has gone to England.

SPAIN.

Cabinet Crisis.

MADRID, September 4.—Sabalia's Cabinet has resigned. Sagosta will form a new Ministry, which will probably be constituted as follows: Sagosta, President of Council and Minister of Interior; Ulloa, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Colmenares, Minister of Justice; Serrano Bedaya, Minister of War; Samacho, Minister of Finance; Rodriguez Arias, Minister of Marine; Navarro Renrigo, Minister of Commerce; Ruiz Otiz, Minister of Colonies.

Reinforcements for Cuba.

Two thousand men will be sent to Cuba in a few days to reinforce the Spanish army.

The Siege of Puycerda Abandoned.

The Carlists have abandoned the siege of Puycerda. The failure of the insurgents to capture the place causes great rejoicing.

Carlists Entrenching Around Bilbao.

MADRID, September 4.—The Carlists are entrenching themselves around Bilbao. Damage done by bombardment of Puycerda was insignificant.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Austrian Polar Expedition.

LONDON, September 4.—Further details of the Austrian Polar expedition have been received. After abandoning their ship, the party traveled for seven months in sledges, and two winters were passed on the ice. The highest point reached was in latitude 80. A large tract of land was discovered to the northward of Nova Zembla. The expedition arrived at Wardoe on a Russian boat. Only one death occurred during the entire voyage.

The New Spanish Ambassadors.

LONDON, September 4.—The credentials of the newly-appointed Spanish Ambassadors make no mention of a Republic.

AFRICA.

U. S. Astronomers at Cape Town.

LONDON, September 4.—The expedition from the United States to observe the transit of Venus arrived at Cape Town on the 5th of August.

BY MAIL.

From Japan.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 4.—The Great Republic arrived to-day, and brings Yokohama dates to August 14th.

The Japanese still adhere to their determination not to be driven into a war with China, except in the last extremity. The whole tendency of their present negotiations is pacific, but so many influences are operating against them that they feel the necessity of fully preparing themselves. To this end large bodies of troops have been assembled in certain southern ports, ready for instant departure in case of need, and several large steamers have been added to their transport fleet. The most important of these are the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s ship New York, purchased for $250,000, and the P. & O. ships Acantha and Madras, for $118,000 and $90,000 respectively. In regard to the New York, it is possible that the claims for commissions yet unsettled and about to be adjudicated, will swell the amount paid by the Japanese to $280,000.

General Legendre, who sailed for China a fortnight ago to continue the peaceful negotiations commenced in Formosa, was arrested by officials on landing at Amoy. It is yet unknown whether he will be temporarily, or whether permanently detained. The astonishment at the news of his seizure was chiefly caused by the fact that the amicable character of his mission to China was known to everybody. It is looked upon as another proof of the determination of foreign representatives to obstruct the efforts of Japan to arrive at a fair understanding. No foreigners acting in behalf of China have been molested or interfered with in any way. The Japanese Government, fortunately foreseeing possible obstacles in General Legendre's case, dispatched other commissioners immediately after his departure, who could not be hindered in the fulfillment of their duties. The first of these is Okubo, Minister of the Interior, and a member of the highest board of the Government. His assistant is Yoshihora, an officer of the Treasury Department and the head of the Yokohama Custom House. They are to proceed directly to Pekin. Accompanying them is a French gentleman in the legal service of the Japanese. So eager are the foreign ambassadors to deprive Japan of all kinds of foreign counsel in this emergency that the French minister undertook to detain this employe. Having the law and a complete knowledge of the law on his side, he was able to convince M. Berthemy of the danger of the course he was pursuing. The Japanese are still hopeful of tranquilizing the result of this last mission. The Mikado takes the keenest interest in the deliberations of the Government on the Formosa question.

PHILADELPHIA.

Raised Certificates of Railroad Stock Discovered.

PHILADELPHIA, September 4.—A number of raised certificates of stock were brought to light through an investigation of the affairs of the Central Fire Insurance Co. They are as follows: Five of the Philadelphia & Reading R. R., all originally for one share, but raised to 100, 200, and 300; five of the Pennsylvania railroad, five of the Lehigh Valley, three of the Central, of New Jersey, and one of the united companies of New Jersey. On one of the raised certificates the Union Banking Company loaned $10,000.

POLITICAL.

The Vermont Election.

MONTPELIER, Vt., September 4.—Returns from Judge Poland's district, five small towns excepted, give Poland 5,575, Dennison 6,875, Davenport 1,765, and scattering 924. Two years ago the same towns gave Poland 10,794, Steele 2,917, Davenport 2,650, and scattering 557. Peck is elected Governor by 21,000 to 23,000 majority.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 4, 1874.

Death of an Operatic Singer.

Madame Agatha Orlandini, the well-known operatic singer, died in this city on Wednesday. The deceased, whose maiden name was Agatha Gaynor, was a native of Dublin, Ireland, whence her parents removed to San Francisco in her childhood.

Failure of a Lumber Firm.

The announcement is made that Baglin & Co., heavy lumber dealers of Newburg, have been compelled to suspend. It is said the suspension was caused by the failure of Comptroller Green, of this city, to pay bills to the amount of $200,000, audited and found correct.

A Derelict Police Justice.

In a habeas corpus case before Justice Donohue, of the Supreme Court, a Police Justice frankly admitted that he had signed a warrant for the arrest of a woman without knowing its contents, trusting to the assurance of the police and his clerk that it was all right. It proved all wrong, and his offence is to be laid before the Grand Jury. Judge Donohue, commenting upon the loose practice which exists in our Police Courts, said he was satisfied that crime was sustained for its political and pecuniary assistance, and that for the sake of illegal revenue panel houses and policy shops were tolerated.

Irregularity by the Charity Commission.

The Commissioners of Accounts have made an examination of the books of the Charity Commission, and make a report showing irregularities in distributing supplies, deceit in making returns, fraud in letting contracts, alteration of books, and everything in a general muddle.

Transplanting American Shad.

Fred. Marther, who sailed from this country a short time ago, having in charge some 100,000 young shad intended for the streams of Germany, writes from on board the steamer that the fish have all died of starvation. Another attempt will be made to transplant shad from American to German waters.

THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, September 4, 1874.

Federal Troops in the Southern States.

No formal order will be issued from the War Department as to the distribution of troops in the Department of the South, but the whole matter will be left with the Department Commander, who will dispose of the forces so that they can be used by United States Marshals in case of necessity. The Federal troops in the South are now distributed as follows: Three companies of the Second Infantry in Alabama, six in Georgia, and one in Tennessee; the entire Third Infantry at Holly Springs, Miss.; three companies of the Sixteenth Infantry in Kentucky, two in Arkansas, one in Mississippi, one in Louisiana, and one in Tennessee; eight companies of the Eighteenth Infantry in South Carolina and two in Georgia; eight companies of the First Artillery in Florida, one in Georgia, two in South Carolina, and one in Virginia; six companies of the Second Artillery in North Carolina, one in South Carolina, one in Virginia, and four in Maryland—making the whole number of troops in the several Southern States between 2,500 and 3,000. The Third Infantry was ordered to Louisiana several months ago, but on account of the warm weather and liability to fever it was decided that the regiment should remain at Holly Springs, Miss., until fall. It will now be hurried to Louisiana.

The double scull race was won by Curtis and Yates, of the New York Athletics, in 9:37¼. Yates' time in the final single was 10:16¼. The final race was the deciding heat of the four oared boats, the contestants being the Argonautas and Beaverwycks of Albany, the winners at Saratoga. It was hotly contested, and was won by a length by the Saratoga champions. Time, 8:45¾; time of Argonautas, 8:51¾.

Old Folks' Excursion.

PHILADELPHIA, September 4.—About 1,400 old folks participated in an excursion to Rockland to-day. Scarcely any were under 60 years of age. The three oldest were 108, 102 and 101. The oldest walked about supported by a cane, and greatly enjoyed the amusements provided. There was a band of music, and dancing was participated in by many who had passed four score.

George O. Evans' Case.

HARRISBURG, September 4.—The application of George O. Evans for a discharge under the insolvent laws of the Commonwealth has been continued until the 1st of December. Evans is under bail in the same amount as heretofore.

EDUCATIONAL.

OUR public schools will reopen on Monday next, after two months' vacation.

THE SHADY SIDE SELECT SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS will commence on Monday. It offers special inducements to pupils from the East End.

THE EPISCOPAL CLASSICAL ACADEMY, No. 64, Grant street, will open on Monday under the superintendence of Rev. Charles H. Kellogg, whose success as an educator is a guarantee that this excellent institution for boys, will be kept up to the highest standard.

ST. JOHN'S PARISH SCHOOL, which begins Monday, Sept. 14, will afford its pupils full opportunity to learn thoroughly all that they undertake, which is, after all the great secret of educational effort. The Rector of St. John's church will send a circular to any applicant.

THE WESTERN UNIVERSITY opened last Monday with a largely increased list of pupils. Dr. Woods is reaching out toward his ideal in this institution, and has furnished us with a university of which any community might well be proud. Its success is a matter of home pride.

THE MISSES HINDMAN'S Select School for Boys and Girls, at 96 Fourth avenue, opened Monday. The Misses Hindman are ladies of culture and tact, and as educators have no superiors anywhere, and the success of their school heretofore is a good guarantee for the future. Boys and girls cannot be placed in a better institution.

THE Bishop Bowman Institute, 62 Grant street, will open September 13 with a full corps of teachers, and as heretofore under the superintendency of Rev. R. J. Coster. The Institute has graduated many young ladies in our community and from elsewhere, and the marked proficiency of the graduates is the best criterion of its excellence.

THE fall term of the Beaver College and Musical Institute opened September 1, with the most flattering prospects. Beaver is one of the most beautiful and healthful towns in the State, and Beaver College has never been so well prepared for pupils as now. Under Prof. Taylor's management it takes rank among the leading schools for young ladies in the land.

THE Pennsylvania Female College commences the fall term with the brightest promise. Rev. Dr. Black has been busy during vacation in perfecting plans for increasing the efficiency of the College, and large facilities are now offered. The college, so pleasantly located at the East End, and surrounded with such lovely grounds, affords a delightful retreat, for study, while the course of study is one that compares with any of the higher colleges in the land.

OAKDALE CLASSICAL AND NORMAL INSTITUTE, for both sexes, has opened the fall term. It is located away from the city, about eight miles out on the Panhandle Road, and has steadily gained in popularity since it was organized. It offers all the necessary advantages for a sound practical education in either the English or classical branches, and at a cost that is within the reach of all. Send to the Principal, M. J. Duthett, Oakdale, Pa., for a catalogue.

NEWELL INSTITUTE.—Both Divisions will open next Tuesday. The Young Ladies' Division at No. 254 Penn avenue, will be under the control of Rev. Dr. John Newell, and the Boy's Division, No. 47 Seventh street, under the care of Messrs. Burchfield and McCreery. The young lady graduates of the Newell Institute, have always stood among the highest in thorough scholarship, and no young gentleman, prepared in the Institute for college, ever failed to pass a matriculation at any of the first colleges of the land.

Should such attempt be made, it is thought the vigilance committee will hang them if they undertake to take them from the Charlestown jail. It is most likely a fearful fight would follow, as it is said the Sheriff is determined to protect the prisoners at all hazards.

HOWARD-LOWRY.

Another Session of the Investigating Committee—The Quality of the Stone Used at the Foundations—Mr. Douglass on the Stand—He Tells What he Knows About the Work—Not Much Progress Made Yet.

The Howard-Lowry Investigating Committee held a meeting, last evening, in the City Clerk's office, with Messrs. Negley, (President) Siebert, Glass and Rosewell present. The first witness called was Mr. Thomas Scandrett, Jr., who, after being sworn testified as follows: I can see passing trains from the city quarry to the foundations daily; the proportion of cut stone to rubble or rough stone is but small; some of the rubble stone is of a very poor class; I think they are not as good as cellar wall stone shipped from Howard's quarry.

Cross-examined by Mr. Lowry—I am clerk at Howard's quarry; I think I am competent to judge of broken stone; consider myself competent to judge of the quality of good stone; have had but little experience in the stone business; never saw any cut stone shipped from the city quarry; I did not count the cars of either rubble or cut stone, every train that passed had more broken stone than dimension stone on it; first began to notice this about the last of April; from about the last of August there has been more dimension shipped.

TESTIMONY OF MR. DOUGLASS.

Mr. John Douglass was sworn and testified as follows: I am a practical stone-mason; have been in the business thirty-six years; there were to be four cross walls in the foundations under the floor; I saw two of them partly built; I do not know how many there were; saw pits dug for the other two; the walls were about 30 feet long; they were about 14 feet wide; know nothing as to how high; they were built with cut stone round the outside, filled in with rubble and laid in mortar; the stones were not "grotted;" (Mr. Howard here read the specifications for the work at the foundations) the backing put in the cross walls was not according to specifications.

Mr. Lowry here stated, for the benefit of the committee that there were no specifications for the cross walls or for the floor, the specifications were for the walls running from the pit.

THE FOUNDATION FLOOR.

Mr. Douglass continued—the floor is 120 feet long and 60 or 70 feet wide; it is about 2½ feet deep; don't know how much of this floor was laid January 1, 1874; after that time I saw it and there was equal to one course laid; I think there was about 1,200 or 1,300 perches of stone laid at the foundations when I was there; there could not have been more than that there on January 1, 1874; there was a good deal of grading to be done for the pit of the floor, when Mr. Lowry took charge of it; the excavation was about four feet yet to go; the average length was about 123 or 124 feet and the width about 70 feet; the material in the pit was some boulders and the balance was composed of a kind of gravel, quicksand and some loam, having the appearance of a former slip; I have been once at the masonry during its progress; have been at the bank several times; the masonry they were building, when it should have been first-class, was first-class as to cut stone; the backing was not first-class; it was not first-class because the stones were too small; the backing was, some of it, as thick as the front stone, it was not laid according to the specifications as to "scabbing" or "close joints."

DESCRIPTION OF THE WORK.

The walls may have been "grotted," but had the appearance of being laid in mortar; the rubble masonry was of poor quality; I could build such rubble masonry and furnish everything for $4 50 and make 25 per cent.; have seen the front wall next to the river; it is not "scabbled" according to the specifications, I believe; it would be worth 25 cents per perch less to build this way than to "scabble;" it would cost $1.50 to $2 per perch on first class work less, to do such masonry as is being done than to do it according to the specifications; I can make no positive estimate as to the first class rubble work; I could do such work for $1.80 less than I bid for it under the specifications.

Cross-examined by Mr. Seibert: There were specifications for the cross walls when I had the contract; I believe so at least; there were to be four cross walls, and I think there are; I don't know if the specifications called for the length, breadth, and thickness I have just given the committee, but the plans do; I may be mistaken; the cross walls are, I believe, as originally designed; do not know there were any changes with regard to these cross walls to suit the foundation unless rock was found; I believe there was no rock found; I base this statement on a conversation had with Mr. Lowry; do not know whether any of the stone work is lower than the cross walls; the cross walls are the lowest point.

THE WIDTH OF THE WALLS.

I do not know if the cross walls are at any point wider than fourteen feet; they could not have been much wider at any point; stone was filled outside these walls to keep them from giving way; these stone were put in to fill up space; there were not very much of this kind of stone filled in; could not say how many perches; this broken stone is worth about $2 50 a perch.

The Chairman then read a letter from Mr. Roberts, stating that he had thought he had paid all the men employed by him and was surprised that Mr. Lowry should have paid $300, for men employed by him.

Mr. Lowry made an explanation, in which he reiterated his statement and said that $300 was yet to be paid for labor, employed by Mr. Roberts.

The Committee then adjourned until Tuesday evening.

The Oil Trade and the Pennsylvania Railroad.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

To-day we will try to show our readers by actual figures that the Pennsylvania Railroad, in opposing the Columbia Conduit Company or any other pipe line to Pittsburgh, is exhibiting a great folly, so far as its own interests are concerned, and a great injustice to the oil producers, and the refiners of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. In a previous article we stated that Pittsburgh had hardly any share in furnishing oil to the New York market, although the distance from Pittsburgh to New York is less than that from any refining center from which New York is supplied. The reason for this is, in the first place, that the Pennsylvania Railroad freight rates from Pittsburgh to New York (450 miles) are higher than those from Cleveland to New York (700 miles). And in the second place, that notwithstanding the short distance from the oil producing regions to Pittsburgh, the refiners of the latter place can hardly control crude oil enough for their purpose, on account of the rates of freight and the limited facilities of the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

Taking oil at the wells, the charge of transport by pipe line from the wells to the shipping point on the railroad varies from 15 to 30 cents per barrel. The railroad charge from Parkers or Butler to this city is 35 cents per barrel. Here is 65 cents freight for a barrel of crude oil from the oil producing territory, a distance of 60 miles (by air line only 30 miles) to the Pittsburgh refineries. Now Cleveland, we believe, pays 35 cents or most probably less to have their crude oil transported 150 miles, and then by owning the United Pipe Line, which connects the wells with Raymilton, their shipping point, their crude oil only costs them 40 cents per barrel to be carried over nearly three times the distance for which Pittsburgh refiners pay 65 cents.

Let us show now how Pittsburgh and Cleveland can lay down oil in New York. Call oil at the wells, for argument sake, $1 per barrel, of 42 gallons. These 42 gallons delivered at Cleveland will cost $1.40, or 3 33-100 cents per gallon. The same amount delivered in Pittsburgh will cost $1 65 cents per barrel, or 4 cents per gallon. We have then the following table:

	Cleveland.	Pittsburgh.
Cost of crude oil per gal.	3-33 cts.	4 cts.
25 per cent. loss in refining	1-11 "	1-33 "
Cost of labor and repairing	1-75 "	1.75 "
Cost of barrels	4 00 "	4 00 "
Freight to New York, storage, &c.	3-10 "	3 57 "
	13.29	14.65

Then it will be seen that Pittsburgh cannot lay down Oil in New York by 1⅓ cent per gallon as cheap as Cleveland. The last item of 3.10 against 3 57 per gallon is for freight charges, which from Cleveland to New York is $1.10 per barrel and from Pittsburgh to New York is $1.30 per barrel. How then can Pittsburgh maintain a successful competition under such disadvantages?

A pipe line to Pittsburgh would put matters more on a level. Calling pipage 30 cents, which has been officially announced, will be the charge of the Columbia Conduit Company, the oil would cost, delivered to Pittsburgh refineries, $1.30 per barrel or 3 cents per gallon. Take the same figures as are given above, namely:

Crude oil per gallon	3 cts.
Loss 25 per cent per gallon	1 "
Labor and refining per gallon	1.75 "
Cost in barrels per gallon	4 "
Freight to New York, storage, &c.	3.57 "
Total cost laid down in New York per gallon	13 32

This shows that by means of a pipe line, Pittsburgh, even with the present discrimination in railroad freights against her, could compete with Cleveland. But if we could have equal railroad rates notwithstanding the much less distance between this city and New York than that between Cleveland and the latter city, we should soon be far ahead of Cleveland. But suppose Pittsburgh could have, what by right it ought to have, railroad rates as much lower than other refining centers in proportion as the distance is less, could any other place dare to compete with it in the manufacture of oil? What doubt can exist then that as soon as we have a pipe line we will refine more oil than now, and transport more oil by the Pennsylvania railroad, for it is evident that the more this city refines the less Cleveland will refine. Who can doubt, then, that the pipe line to this city will be a benefit to the refining, the transporting interest, and to the community at large.

BESSIE TURNER, who figured in the Tilton affair was a student at Steubenville Female Seminary, and a young lady of our city who lately graduated there has her photo and autograph in her album. Bessie was not a brilliant student, neither was she attractive in appearance or in conversation, but had pleasant agreeable manners that won for her more friends than her handsome and more gifted companions could boast of. Her knowledge of the skeleton in the Tilton mansion she kept well to herself.—Monongahela City Republican.

THE corner stone of the new Insane Asylum at Warren, will be laid next Wednesday, by Gov. Hartranft. Gen. Schofield will make the address.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

The Educational Interests of the Church—Lecture by Dr. Schindler—The Sunday School Work—The Publishing Interests—Church Union—Membership.

SECOND DAY—EVENING.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., September 3, 1874.

The audience convened at 7½ o'clock to hear an educational address by Professor Schindler, of Adrian College, and others. The hymn commencing,

"How sweet the name of Jesus sounds,
In a believer's ear," was sung. Prayer was offered by J. B. Walker. The audience sung

"Jesus, I love thy charming name;
'Tis music to my ear."

Rev. J. B. Walker was first introduced and gave a brief history of Adrian College, its locality, advantages, buildings, endowment, manner of educating, namely, co education of the sexes, thoroughness, prosperity, etc.

After a suitable song by the audience Prof. Schindler was presented and delivered a very interesting address, using the first verse of the fifth chapter of Matthew, where we are told Jesus went up into a mountain, his disciples came unto him, and he taught them. He claimed Christ's example and thereby authority for both home and college education, and then argued its rationality, philosophy, divinity, necessity from natures processes, the evident and inevitable necessities of material, intellectual and spiritual culture and development. Feeding he claimed is one of the principal educational processes, taught in nature and by Christ. He gave Prof. Tyndal and his educational bunglings and soul-destroying errors some fearful thrusts. It was an educational address of a religious order and higher grade, fully on Christ's side. It was original, forceful, clear and effective—such an address as cannot be reported without giving it in full.

J. B. Walker made a few remarks, and asked a contribution for Ministerial education, after which the service closed by singing the Doxology and benediction.

THIRD DAY'S SESSION

FRIDAY, Sept. 4, 1874.

Devotional exercises conducted by T. H. Colhour. These exercises were continued half an hour.

Reports of committees were called for. The committee to obtain a legal opinion on certain features of the charter of the Preachers Aid Society of the Conference, was continued to report at next conference.

A. Clark, J. Scott, W. Collier, J. J. Gillespie were made a committee on reunion with the Methodist Protestant church.

The Committee on Ministerial Education reported, showing some falling off in the receipts as compared with last year, the result of the financial panic. The young men aided are doing well. The agent is active and hopeful. Conference was asked to pledge continued, and, if possible, increased interest in this important work. J. B. Walker, agent, made some remarks on the subject, explaining and urging earnest and active co-operation. The report of the committee was adopted.

The Committee on Sunday Schools read a report. Recommitted.

Bros. Sipe, Dodson and Taylor were applicants for admission into Conference, with a view to ministerial work.

Dr. J. Ragan was elected Fraternal Messenger to the Muskingum Conference.

Committee on the case of J. H. Shehan reported that he has gone to parts unknown and recommend that his name be erased from the roll of members. Report was adopted. Adjourned. Prayer by E. A. Brindley.

AFTERNOON SESSION

opened with religious services by J. B. Lucas. E. Mathews from the Committee on Obituaries, reported the decease during the year of Brothers Ira Bronson and J. A. Francis, both unstationed ministers in good standing, faithful and efficient in their ministrations while their health allowed them to be active. Suitable remarks were made by several members of Conference in reference to the deceased brethren.

The Committee on publishing interests reported, showing that important interest of the Church in good and prosperous condition, also advising that the price of the Methodist Recorder be increased, in order to meet the additional expenditure of the Board of publication on account of having to prepay the postage.

The Committee on Church Union reported, recommending that the Fraternal Messengers to the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church be constituted a Commission to confer with a like Commission of that Church. A number of Union Addresses were made and the report was adopted by an unanimous rising vote.

Committee on Statistics reported, showing considerable increase of membership during the year, mostly by conversions. Recommitted to be perfected. Adjourned after prayer.

REFRESHMENTS!!

Advertisement Extraordinary.

WHEN ere I sup away from home, what wretched Tea I drink,
INDEED, through this sad cause alone, from friendly calls I shrink,
LET others buy their willowy trash, and name it mild Oolong;
LET boarding houses serve it up, as excellent Souchong.
I BUY my Tea from Haslage, he, who sells at modest rates,
A FRAGRANT herb that ever cheers, but not inebriates.
MY taste for Tea, thus cultured by many a perfumed brew,
HAS taught to me a lesson that I'll now convey to you:
AND this it is, when ere you wish Imperial or Japan,
SOUCHONG, Gunpowder, Hyson, go to no other man—
LET Haslage all your Teas supply, and "tease" yourself no more,
A RUNNING round inquiring for the best from store to store.
GO then to 18 Diamond, and contented you will sup
EXCEEDING gladness in your heart, and TEA within your cup.
AND there besides this choicest herb, a hundred things you'll find,
NO housekeeper without regret could ever leave behind;
DELICIOUS store of fruit prepared, essentials for a feast,
CITRONS and Figs and Raisins, from the Islands of the East;
OF Spices, too, a vast array, by trade winds blown from far,
MORE odorous and pungent than our Northern flowers are.
PUT under contribution, the World, its tribute brings,
AND HASLAGE gathers for our use a thousand pleasant things.
NOTHING is here forgotten, from a Herring to a Cheese.
YOU can quickly find and pay for, in short, just what you please.
FRAGRANTLY smells the Coffee, that most aromatic bean.
A RARE collection, always fresh, and either browned green.
MAN hardly could a loss, so great as that sustain,
IF Coffee should no longer grow to soothe the weary brain.
LIKE the blossoms of the Lotus, it lulls into repose—
YET far unlike the Lotus, leaves no stupor as it goes.
GIVE me a cup of Coffee, such as Haslage only keeps.
RIGHT from the Isle of Java or Mocha's verdant steppes.
OF such a draught the gods might drink, and give their nectar up.
CONTENT to let Ambrosia go, and only Coffee sup,
EACH reader should remember now, the place to go for these.
REMEMBER that when others fail, Haslage can always please,
SUCH prices, too, that any one can buy with perfect ease.

TWENTY-FIVE thousand majority for the Republican ticket in Vermont, on a light vote, is not bad.

GENERAL McDOWELL has received orders to so dispose his troops as to protect the colored people at the South.

THE Commission to prepare amendments to the new Constitution of this State, has been in session in Philadelphia, but nothing definite was done.

THE New York Tribune, despite its sympathy for the Democracy two years ago, has this to say of their Ohio platform: "Almost every mischievous doctrine in the whole range of American politics was formulated into the Bourbon declaration of principle drawn up at Columbus on the 26th of last month."

JAPAN shows a very peaceable spirit, as compared with China. They are engaged in a spirited controversy, which even threatens war, but while China is warlike, Japan is conciliatory, but careful. She has massed troops, and purchased war steamers, yet seeks to persuade the Chinese that peace is better than war.

THE Republicans of New Jersey are overjoyed at the nomination of Hon. George A. Halsey for Governor, and ratification meetings are being held in the different cities of the State. The volume of feeling is such, that every assurance is felt that victory will be theirs in November next. There has not been, for many years, so much harmony as is felt in the pending election.

WHETHER the new paper to be issued in New York during the present month will be a Third Term paper or not, it is generally regarded as an administration paper, and its operations are regarded with considerable interest. It will not become a member of the Associated Press, but will establish news gathering agents of its own. It will be called the Republic, and will be of the size and appearance of the Herald.

GOVERNOR KELLOGG, of Louisiana, in his proclamation offering a reward for the murderers of the resigned officials, details the several steps of the crime, and shows that in place of the murderers being Texans they left the very town where the prisoners were being kept over night, and thus, were waiting for them, and in collusion with their "guard." The fact that the arms of the negroes were fastened supports this theory. He offers $5,000 for the detection of the murderers.

A NEW but not unexpected crime has been ascertained to exist, in the shape of an organization to defraud life insurance companies, by means of fraudulent insurances. Persons sick or likely to die, are insured, the money collected, and divided, by means of connivance on the part of agents and others, who have combined for this purpose. So extensive is the organization that the question is asked whether provision is made in the estimates of companies for losses through this source.

THE chief objects for discussion in the Ohio canvass, will evidently be the currency and civil rights issues. The Democrats have embraced repudiation, and are, of course, opposed to civil rights. The Republican Convention spoke out on these issues with a distinctness that leaves nothing to be desired. It is quite evident that the existing canvass will effectually dispose of two vital questions,—repudiation and negro persecution. Civil rights and unimpaired national credit are the issues to be fought out.

A SOUTHERN journal gives twelve reasons why "the conservative young men of the country should join the Republican party." There is one in the list which will answer for all. It is, "because it is the only existing party that concedes equal rights to all before the law." The refusal to accept this principle by the White Leaguers of the South, is the actual reason for the outrages perpetrated there. We submit that a party that can be guilty of such things does not deserve the confidence of the people anywhere.

THE London Spectator comments on the Hartranft nomination for the Presidency as an important and significant event in American politics. It is unfortunate. No nomination at this early date is particularly significant, and that any of them will serve to cause General Grant to take one course or another to secure the next nomination for the Presidency is, of course, extremely absurd. The Spectator was friendly to this country during the war, but it illustrates how little even friendly English journals understand of American politics.

THERE is, of course, anything but a kindly feeling between the Orleanists and Bonapartists, in France. The Count de Paris was recently obliged to raise a loan of $600,000 by mortgaging his estates, and the Bonapartist journals intimate it to be for the purposes of intrigue. The general presumption, however, is that the money was borrowed only to be invested in England, as a safeguard against utter confiscation in case the Bonapartes recovered the throne again. The interest paid could be secured on the loan, and thus provision made, so that if driven into exile, the princely family would not be utterly poverty stricken. The incident illustrates the precarious character of the hopes of princely families.

THE President has fully committed himself to the policy of suppressing disorders at the South, and has directed the War Department to co-operate with the Department of Justice to this end. Attorney General Williams has issued instructions to United States Marshals and District Attorneys at the South, to go to the fullest limit of their powers in protecting the colored and white people who are undergoing political persecution. We are more than usually gratified at this, as evilly disposed persons were representing that the President was inclined to let the Southern States alone, no matter what might occur. President Grant proves that he is not of this mind, and has promptly taken a decision which in itself will go far toward suppressing disorders at the South. We do not doubt that the belief that they were safe from the interference of the National Government, inspired the Southern desperadoes to the course taken by them. We hope they will be severely punished for the outrages already perpetrated.

THE Dispatch at last puts itself in the position we expected it would assume. Its personalities are the expression of rage over baffled malice. It has become proverbial in this city that when driven to a corner, the Dispatch always resorts to personalities. We do not need to reply to them, easy as it would be to do so, for if a person who comes from a contiguous State is a "carpet-bagger," what is a Catholic Irishman, who came to this country without so much as a carpet bag? Nor will we discuss circulation. No reputable journal finds it necessary to have weekly affidavits of circulation, and where this is done, there is good reason to doubt the bona fide character of what is sworn to. Pure women do not parade affidavits of virtue. As to the Sunday Times, not only is it defunct, but if affidavits are worth anything, the Leader prints one every day that proves the utter falsity of the Times estimate. But for all this we care nothing. As to Third Termism, we may now inform the false quoting Dispatch that among intelligent newspapers, the Third Term theory has been discussed as a theory, and also as a possible project of General Grant's. We have denied repeatedly that General Grant entertained Third Term aspirations, and have opposed the Third Term theory, all of which is entirely consistent. So we close all this by saying that a little more intelligence and less volubility will improve the editorial department of the Dispatch, and a trifle of good-breeding might be of benefit to that paper generally.

THE TICKET.

We put in print, this morning, the entire Republican ticket, deeming this the proper time to enter upon the active canvass. There was no need, during the Summer, for political discussion, as all the facts, upon which a final judgment is usually based, were not yet developed. The Democratic party had not made its nominations, or enunciated its platform, and the spirit and aims of that party were not unfolded. Thus the issue was not made up, and there is little value in discussing perpetually the merits or demerits of one's own party. We placed on record the expression of our disapproval of two or three legislative candidates, and do not change this estimate; but they are nominated, and it remains for the people to determine whether they shall be elected or not. Our State ticket, and the local ticket with the exceptions thus intimated but which we do not need to specify more closely, command our cordial support.

Many considerations must be taken into account by a candid, thoughtful person, in determining the direction of his political allegiance. The relative importance of an election, the effect of electing a given candidate on other and larger issues, the attitude and spirit of the opposing party, the characters of their candidates, and the effect, in the future, of entrusting them with power,—these are among the items that must be thought of when determining questions of party or individual support. That the Democratic party has been hopeful of success, and that Republicans, in certain sub-divisions of territory, have thought of aiding them with votes, is too clear to admit of doubt. But the State Convention of that party, in its platform enunciations, so monstrously assailed sentiments that are dear to every true Republican, that it served to check the growing liberality of feeling. No candid Republican believes that the Republican party has violated the Constitution, through Grant's Administration, or by Congress. None believe that taxation has been increased by the National Government; and none feel that they should proscribe the colored race from school advantages. On the contrary, every true Republican is in sympathy with the Civil Rights measure, which does not require mixed schools, but does enjoin the duty of granting equal educational opportunities to the blacks. As a fitting comment on these deliberate declarations of the Democracy, and as an exponent of their spirit, we have the outrages at the South. That these are realities, and not sensational stories, is now demonstrated beyond denial. Their barbarity exceeds that of the worst phases of kukluxism, and the design is not concealed or even disguised. The utterances of Democratic platforms, in this and other States, touching the Civil Rights bill, and the barbarities practiced at the South join as a fitting illustration of the fact, that their spirit is as violent and malignant as it was in 1861, or in the darkest days of slavery. We cannot think that any Republican, yet possessed of his old instincts of justice and right, can cast a vote that will serve, in any degree, to give power to a party of such violent, bloody, and reactionary purpose.

We fully admit and realize that we need certain reforms within this State. The subject has been discussed in this journal alone, of all the papers in Pittsburgh, except the Evening Telegraph. No morning daily, however pretentious its declaration of independence, has had the nerve to point out wrongs that undeniably exist. And we attribute to our open utterances the fact, that at least one-half, if not three fourths of our legislative ticket, now before the people, is made up of candidates who do not, and will not pay allegiance to the State Ring. It was not reasonable to expect to gain all, and we do not feel called upon to single out and oppose those the Ring did manage to nominate, as with our present views, we see more harm than good in this. It is not a question of individual candidates. It is perfectly well known that in a very important sense, those elected will be representative. Aside from votes on purely legislative and party questions will be those cast for United States Senator. Nor have we confidence that the Democratic party is sincere in its reform promises. Its resolutions touching the Civil Rights bill show that it is saturated with the old anti-slavery spirit. If it has made no progress in a matter so vital, what confidence can we have that it has in other subjects, less vital? For long years it had control in this State; and during those years, while steadily plunging the State in debt, it took no steps to prevent the Treasurer drawing interest on State moneys, or in any way to reform Treasury management. It was the Republican party that gave us the new Constitution, and we are more perfectly satisfied the more we consider it, that the Republican party alone is capable and willing to secure needed reforms. The fact, too, that even where Republicans not satisfactory to us are nominated, Democrats who were pronounced copperheads during the war are put in nomination, determines us, at the least, to give a tacit support to even unsatisfactory Republicans.

We may amplify the several points here touched upon more fully in the future. We seek no embittered discussion, but have surveyed the situation in the light of all the facts, and announce the resolution reached. We place, therefore, the entire Republican ticket at the head of our columns.

POLITICAL NOTES.

THE Republicans of Fulton county have nominated John B. Alexander for the Legislature.

REPORT has it that Mr. David A. Wells may become Congressman Starkweather's successor from the Third Connecticut District.

THEY are already beginning to ask in Reading, "Who will be President Judge in Hon. Warren J. Woodward's place?" The new Constitution gives the Chief's ermine to Hon. Jeremiah Hagerman.

LEWIS D. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, writes to the Democratic Convention of his Congressional district to say that as his name has been mentioned for Congress, "he neither has claims to nor personally wants that or any other office or nomination." He does not want to be thought "a chronic office seeker."

NEBRASKA politics are becoming complicated. Four State Conventions have been called, and now a fifth one is demanded by an organization calling itself the People's party. It will be held on September 7. Nebraska voters will be very fastidious if, when election day comes, they are unable to find a ticket which suits them.

THE fortuitous Democratic nominee for Auditor General, Justus Temple—not a Temple of Justice—is a lawyer of vast profundity, and has been so regarded by all acute jurists who have been thrown in contact with him. As a proof of his standing as such in Greene county, and here alone is he known, we relate the following colloquy which actually took place in the Greene county Court House, between this "Justice" and His Honor, the late Judge Gilmore. It was a case in which "Justice" had brought his client into Court feet foremost—on an action "wrong brought"—as a matter of course the case would be ejected head foremost from the Court. In an infantile effort on the part of "Justice" to save his client, he piteously inquired, "What, then, may it please your Honor, will my client do?" The Judge, who had for some moments been thus tortured, looking out over the head of "Justice" Temple, glancing a look over the audience with an eye like a wounded panther, and his teeth clenched, and lips parted, exclaimed, "Why, why, get a-a lawyer."—Uniontown Standard.

BAZAINE says the report that he had given his word not to escape "is false."

HER MAJESTY the Empress of Austria and suite are at Claridge's Hotel, London.

GENERAL SPINNER will leave Washington to-day for a brief tour among the northern lakes.

REV. A. CARMAN, D. D., President of Albert College, has been elected Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada.

MRS. DR. HART, aged sixty-five years, residing in Memphis, was fatally burned last Thursday night by the explosion of a coal oil lamp, which she was carrying.

BARNUM pocketed $30,000 a week for three weeks in Boston, by simply riding five minutes, hat in hand, in a barouche around the sawdusty arena of the hippodrome. But first get your hippodrome.

JUDGE BASIN HARRISON, Michigan's centenarian, died on Sunday, aged 104 years. He was a nephew of President Harrison. It is stated that for several years his hair had been white, but two years ago it began growing darker, and was nearly black again in many places on his head.

MR. MURAT HALSTEAD writes as follows in one of his letters on the Iceland celebration. "Mr. Bayard Taylor was introduced as the Skald from America. He quite surprised the people by addressing them in Danish briefly, but fluently, expressing sentiments of respect and congratulation. When he had concluded, the King, who was standing in the thick of the crowd, led the cheering, giving the Skald the full and regular three times three. At the Geysers a few days afterward the King told Mr. Taylor he was exceedingly surprised to hear him speak in Danish, and complimented him upon his command of the language."

PRESIDENT SMITH, of Dartmouth College, is in the habit of holding informal talks with the students on subjects in which they are specially interested. In a recent conversation he told them he had at first been in doubt about the usefulness of boating, but when it had been determined upon, he had aided it by his words and his purse, on the theory that what was worth doing at all was worth doing well. He alluded to the custom of students serving as waiters in the hotels during Summer, and added: "When we consider the fact that nearly one third of the students of Dartmouth teach school during the Winter, and work at harvesting in the Summer, we need have no fear about the dignity of labor becoming an obsolete expression."

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

PROF. KING made a balloon ascension in Cleveland yesterday, accompanied by several representatives of the press.

A FIRE in Greenville, Miss., on Thursday night, destroyed nearly all the business houses in the place, seventy-three in number, involving a loss of about $250,000.

THE following advertisement recently appeared in a New York paper: "Tried to learn, but give it up. Will sell piano, stool, cover, and hymn book for $150. A few dollars cash. Address "Old Bach," Herald office." There is a degree of honesty in this brief and pathetic announcement, which is very remarkable, to say the least. What an amount of excruciatingly bad music the world might be spared, if numerous others were equally honest!

A PARTY of twelve persons is said to have left Chicago recently to join in the establishment of a "community," similar to the Oneida community, on Valcour's Island, in Lake Champlain, the foundation of the society being "absolute social freedom," and its only governing law "complete, universal free love." The chief mover in the enterprise is said to be one Colonel John Wilcox, of Omro, Wis., and accessions are expected from Chicago, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Michigan.

WE do not know that the hog is an imitative animal, but one of that sort, tired perhaps of hearing that drunkards made hogs of themselves, lately caught the crusading spirit in Dubuque. So he dashed full of fiery zeal into a saloon, scorning to wait for the door to be opened unto him, but effecting his entrance through the window, thus extinguishing many lights of glass. Once in, he proceeded to demolish the bottles and glasses without any preliminary exhortation or singing. The proprietor, while expressing himself most volubly and vehemently, made no promise to give up the business.

THE twelve men murdered while on their way from Coushatta, Louisiana, to Shreveport, were six whites and six colored. The white men were all of Northern birth, and had been soldiers in the army of the Union. They were: F. S. Edgarton, Sheriff; H. T. Twitchell, Tax Collector; Clark Holland, Register; Gilbert Cone, Deputy Sheriff; W. F. Howell, Attorney-at-law; and R. A. Dewees, Tax Collector of DeSoto Parish. Their offense was a refusal to resign their offices to the demand of an armed mob. They were overpowered, made prisoners, and locked up in the jail. A "guard of honor" was to escort them to Shreveport. They were taken by an out-of-the-way route through Bassier Parish, and there set upon and all murdered.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

MISS KELLOGG has declined an offer of $25,000 and expenses for ten nights of English opera in California.

MR. IRA COUCH, of Chicago, and bride, formerly Miss Eliza O'Conner, the emotional actress, have sailed for Europe.

A CHORUS of 2,500 voices is to be one of the attractions at the opening of the Industrial Exhibition at San Francisco this year.

CARL ROSA has determined to resume the active business of his profession, and is now organizing an English Opera Company for a season of performances in various parts of England. His many friends in the United States will be glad to learn that he purposes returning to America in January.

THE English Opera Troupe, headed by Miss Kellogg, and under the management of Mr. Hess, will inaugurate its season of 1874 and 1875 at McVicker's Theater, October 5. Among the artists of the troupe are Miss Kellogg, Mrs. Vanzandt, Mrs. Seguin, and Messrs. Campbell, Castle, Carleton, Seguin and Maas.

MRS. LANDER seems to have pleased the Philadelphia play-goers. It would not be easy for an actress so proficient and accomplished to play any part badly, and this distinguished lady's return to the stage is a fact to be recorded with pleasure. She is now playing a successful engagement in Brooklyn as Lady Teazle in the "School for Scandal."

THREE of the most popular prima donnas on the European stage are American by birth—Patti, Albani, and Minnie Hauck. They say in London that Albina is English, and, as England has no other prima donna, she is a great favorite. The fact is that she is American, her name, Albani, being a slight variation of Albany, near which city she formerly lived. Minnie Hauck is a New Orleans girl.

NO MORE FAMINE IN INDIA.

The Government to Irrigate the Land—$200,000,000 to be Spent—Mysore to Pass Under Native Rule.

[From the New York World.]

British India is very rapidly recovering from the effects of the great famine, although several millions of the natives in the Bengal district are still under the protecting care of the Government. It will be many years before the effects of this great famine will pass away, but still we take good heart and rejoice at the evidence all around us that better times are coming. Here in this province the prospect for the crops was never better. Copious rains have fallen throughout Bengal and Behar, with the exception of a few places in the vicinity of Calcutta. Ample and continued rain is reported from all the northwestern provinces. Everywhere the soil is cultivated, and in nearly all the agricultural districts the sowing has been already completed. In Gorakhpur and Bustee the granting of relief by the Government has already been discontinued, and in a few weeks more there is reason to believe that the famine-pinched millions of this flower land will once again become self-supporting.

All great calamities bear with them a great lesson, and the lesson of the Bengal famine is about to be taken to heart by the Government. British India is a remarkably rich country, but there has always been one great drawback to the prosperity. We never know for a certainty that we shall have rain enough to develop the fertility of our soil. The Marquis of Salisbury, Secretary of State for India, has at length determined to fight these periodical famines which undo in one year the work of twenty. He is going to do this by means of a vast system of irrigation—so vast, indeed, that the figures in the estimated cost are startling. The Government of India has always given much attention to this subject. Gigantic works have been undertaken, and many have been completed. Still much remains to be done; and the progress made, though great, has not kept pace with the increased demand for irrigation. Lord Salisbury's scheme is comprehensive enough, if thoroughly carried out, to insure all Northern India for all time to come against any failure of crops from a lack of water. The scheme has been submitted, and the estimated cost is 400,000,000 rupees ($200,000,000). In order to raise this immense sum of money, which, after all, is probably an underestimate, fresh loans will have to be made, and India is already burdened heavily with taxation. But if the country can be effectually preserved against another calamity such as has just visited us, the expenditure will be well invested.

The province of Mysore is shortly to pass under native rule again. It has always been the policy of England to allow the natives to govern themselves when she could do so with safety to herself. The King of Mysore will pay tribute of course to the British Government in India, and England will withdraw her troops from the province, leaving the natives to manage their own local affairs in their own way under certain restrictions. In view of this change, several innovations are now making in the system of the English rule, intended to educate the natives up to the advantage of English "Attaches, selected from native families possessed of historical associations, are from time to time to be appointed on probation to subordinate ministerial positions," with the prospect of being transferred to the graded list if they conduct themselves properly and qualify for higher duties. The first of these young men who has just been appointed was a great-grandson of the celebrated Purnaiya, and the hope is expressed that, in addition to his "historical associations," he may have inherited from his famous ancestor a talent for financial administration which may render him worthy to be the future Finance Minister of Mysore—the position which it is intended that he shall hold under the new Government.

A Detroit Man Elopes With a Mother and Six Children

It is quite a common affair if a man loves some one else's wife better than his own, or some single woman better than his wife, for him to take her and elope to parts where they can live and not be disturbed. But it is only once in a score of years that a man becomes so infatuated with a woman, and an old woman at that, that he will take six children along in their flight. Such a case has happened in this city. A man named Myron B. Adams, employed in the car wheel foundry at Toledo, and intending to remove there, had his family in rooms with another family on Chestnut street. He was here two weeks ago and removed them to the house, and went back to Toledo to rent a house and make preparations for their arrival. He telegraphed twice last week for them to come on, and then wrote his wife, but receiving no answers he reached here yesterday morning to find that they had left Detroit a week ago by the Flint and Pere Marquette road, in charge of a man twenty-seven years old, named Charles Taylor, a car painter by trade. This man used to board with Adams, but was kicked out of doors for showing too much attention to Mrs. Adams. The husband learned that as soon as he had gone Taylor came to see his wife, and had a long interview with her, and finally sold part of her goods and shipped the rest to Flint, and then took the whole family and started. Adams will go to Flint to-day and get his children, the oldest of whom is a girl of fifteen, but he will have nothing more to say to his wife. He says she is a weak minded, easily flattered, and not over good-looking, and if Taylor wants her he is welcome to keep her.—Detroit Free Press.

The Beggars of Rome.

The beggars of Rome, who are so familiar to travelers, are in danger of losing their means of livelihood, as it is probable that a law will be passed forbidding mendicancy on the streets. They are often arrested, even now, but as the penalty is only one or two days' imprisonment they are soon able to recommence their business. The police have an exact register of all these miserable beings, whose number is about six hundred. A part of these are really unable to work, and a part so habituated to idleness and mendicancy that it would be difficult to teach them a trade or force them to begin any occupation whatever. Edmund About relates that, to prove that this is a profitable business, he himself began to beg on the Corso one evening, and in the space of half an hour he had received thirty cents. If every fiftieth person of the thousands who pass gives a cent the amount will soon be considerable.

A TOMB in the Yazoo, Miss., cemetery bears this inscription:

"Here lies interred Prescilla Bird,
Who sang on earth till sixty-two;
Now up on high, above the sky,
No doubt she sings like sixty, too."

Episcopal Classical Academy,
NO. 64 GRANT ST.,
PITTSBURGH, PA.
This School will reopen MONDAY, September 7th, under the management and direction of Rev. CHAS. H. KELLOGG, as Principal.
Mr. KELLOGG has been fortunate enough to associate with him Mr. RUDOLPH LEONHART, a College graduate and an efficient teacher as assistant.
Mr. LEONHART was for a long period Professor of German and Ancient History in the Western University of Pennsylvania, and is too well known to citizens of Pittsburgh to require any further introduction. Mr. LEONHART will have entire charge of the Department of Languages, giving instruction in Latin, Greek, German, French and Spanish.
Mr. KELLOGG begs to assure the former patrons of the EPISCOPAL CLASSICAL ACADEMY that its good name and its highest interests will not suffer under the new management.
Careful instruction in the English branches, and in the Classics, will characterize the School, and young men will be thoroughly prepared for college.
No pains, no labor will be spared to make the institution in every way worthy the patronage and support of its friends.
Application may be made for admission to the Primary or Academic Department, at 64 Grant street.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, September 5, 1874.

Events that have transpired recently illustrate the wickedness and folly of creditors pressing and persecuting debtors, when the latter are temporarily embarrassed. If a man is honest, and shows assets sufficient to cover his liabilities, there should be great caution exercised in crowding him. But there are, unfortunately, more or less selfish persons, who imagine that they have only to urge legal proceedings, and refuse to be tolerant, to secure their claims, whether others get theirs or not. Nearly every case of assignment or bankruptcy recently recorded may be accounted for in this way. The result usually is that the greedy creditor not only fails to secure his claim, but loses largely, along with others. We know a case in this city, less than two years since, where an ill-advised person refused a compromise or extension, and forced an honest man, at the moment embarrassed, into bankruptcy. The panic came on while his estate was being settled, and the creditors received but a trifle. Such instances are occurring all the while. It should be set down as a rule that with our bankrupt laws no man can succeed in forcing advantages, and it is not wise to try. Creditors will do well to observe the spirit of that law, which is to give the honest debtor a chance.

Nothing new to report in financial circles. The activity in the New York stock market has caused many Pittsburghers to invest, but, so far as we can learn, they are generally "long" of the market, which is, just now, the unfortunate side.

In New York, the merchants generally report business on the increase, and the expectations of a good fall trade, now, are much more hopeful, as well as more general, than they were a few days ago. The dry goods people continue to drive trade by reducing prices. To-day, Wamsutta bleached shirtings were reduced to 17 cents, less a trade discount. "Fruit of the Loom" is also down to 13 cents.

Another circumstance which contributes to the improved feeling is the report that the leading "bear" operator, who has been so long the nightmare of the street, has changed his tactics, and turned bull, and is employing his tactics, so as to obtain control of Western Union at the next election. How all that may be in fact, it would be risky to say, as Wall street reports often "mean" the reverse of what appears on their face.

The currency balance in the Treasury is now $16,691,000, having steadily increased to that amount from $3,728,000 six months ago. The coin balance in gold belonging to the Government is about two millions less than the amount held a year ago.

The harvest season is now sufficiently advanced to enable the positive statement to be made by those claiming most study of the subject that the grain crops of Europe and North America are above an average. The transition from a high price of grain to one lower than the average is therefore inevitable. The British crop is estimated at 116,000,000, which is also estimated as 68,000,000 bushels short of the British consumption. From present appearances the United States, Russia, Hungary, Germany, France and Turkey will have 88,000,000 bushels which they must sell to supply the eight or nine million quarters required by the United Kingdom. It is estimated that the average price of English wheat will fall below 50 shillings per quarter in the course of the next three months. The average for the week ending August 15 was 58 shillings. The price to be paid for the wheat imported into England the coming harvest year, dating from the 1st of September, will probably reach a total of $110,000,000, against $175,000,000 paid in the year just ended.

NEW YORK, September 4, 1874.

The Treasury disbursements were $303,000. The customs receipts were $328,000. The dry goods imports for the week were $3,136,239. Prime mercantile paper 5@7; money 2@2½. Sterling was dull and heavy at 486½@487 for sixty days and 488½@489 for sight. Gold opened at 109⅝, and closed at 109⅝, the only rates of the day. The carrying rates were 1@2. Loans were made flat. The clearings were $20,000,000. Railroad bonds were firm, with a general slight advance. State bonds were quiet and nominal. Governments were steady. Stocks opened steady at a slight advance. After a slight reaction a further advance of ¼@1 was made on the whole list. Later the market became irregular. Western railroads were unfavorably affected by a rumor that the expected decision of the Wisconsin Courts would not be rendered to day, and these stocks declined ¼@1. Shortly before the close, however, there was a marked change, and prices made a general advance. Wabash rose from 32¼ to 33⅝, the improvement ranging from ¼ to ⅝ per cent. in the balance of the list. Union Pacific, Western Union, New York Central, Lake Shore, Ohios, Pacific Mail and C. C. and I. C. closed strong at the highest point of the day. The improvement was due to active covering of frightened "shorts," and the Western Union two per cent quarterly dividend. Among the sales were 19,000 shares Western Union, 5,000 Pacific Mail, 6,000 Erie, 14,000 Lake Shore, 16,000 Union Pacific, 5,500 North West, 13,500 Rock Island, 5,000 St. Paul and 26,000 Wabash.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, Sept 3, 1874.

Trade in general merchandise continues moderately active, and although it is not by any means all that could be desired, it is, perhaps, about all that can be reasonably expected. The inquiry for nearly all the leading staples is confined wholly to supplying immediate wants, while as regards values, the only change of any importance to do is a decline of half a cent ℔ ℔ in Sugar Cured Hams.

APPLES—Continue dull but nominally unchanged at $1@1,50 ℔ brl.

BUTTER—There is a moderate local demand and some inquiry for shipment east: prices, however, remain unchanged: 10@12 for common: 15@22 for medium to good and 23@25 for prime to choice. Good solid packed will bring 2½c for shipment.

CHEESE—The market for Ohio Factory is quoted steady at 13½@14. New Ohio Sweitzer, 16@18.

EGGS—The receipts have been on the increase for some days, and as stocks have commenced to accumulate, and holders are more anxious to realize, the market is weak and prices are drooping: we now quote fresh at 19@20.

FLOUR—The most important feature we have to note is that Minnesota flours have declined 25@50c ℔ brl at the source of supply, and we may look for a corresponding decline here; we quote Springs at $6 50@7,25, and red winters at $6@6,50.

GROCERIES—Sugars continue strong: refined are reported higher at the seaboard, and the indications are that there will be a further advance within the next few days. Coffee, on the other hand, continues dull and weak, with a good deal offering from the seaboard and but little selling—Jobbers are determined to touch it lightly until the market settles down. Molasses, Syrups and Rice steady and quiet but unchanged.

SUGARS.—Pulverized, Crushed and Granulated 11½c; Patent Cut Loaf, 12½c, Soft A, 11c; B, 10¾; Ex. C, 10⅜; Franklin Extra C, 10; American Extra C, 9⅞; Yellow Sugars, 8 to 9⅞.

COFFEE.—Fancy Rio, 25; Choice Rio, 23½@24 prime, 23c; good, 22c. Fancy Roasted, in 1 ℔ packages, 28c; loose, 25½c; Java, 32c; Roasted, 40 cts.

MOLASSES—Strictly prime New Orleans, 90c; prime, 85c; good, 80c; common, 75c; Porto Rico, 70@75c.

SYRUPS—Fancy White Drips, $1,00@1,20; White Drips, $1; Extra Sugar Drips, 65 to 70c; Silver, 60@65; Molasses Syrups, 40 to 50.

RICE—Best Carolina, 9⅜; good, 9½c; Rangoon, 7½@8c; Patna, 8½c.

GRAIN—The Wheat market continues very quiet, and prices are weak although nominally unchanged: quotable at $1.12@1,15 for Penna and Ohio red winter, and $1.18@1.20 for white. The Oat market is somewhat firmer in tone, but unchanged in price—we continue to quote at 50@53 for mixed to prime white. Corn is considerably firmer, as it is up considerably in the West, our main source of supply, an advance here seems almost inevitable, especially as the supply is light—we now quote at 80@82 for shelled and 83 @85 for ear. Rye is nominal at 95c@$1. We hear of some 20 cars of No. 2 Chicago Barley having been contracted for at $1 15—delivered here.

HAY—Loose sold in Allegheny to day, from country wagons, at $25@30 for old and $15@20 for new, and the supply—especially of the former was unequal to the demand. Baled is still quotable $20@24 ℔ ton.

ONIONS—$3@4 ℔ bbl.

POTATOES—The market is firm, with sales of one car on spot at 83, and ten cars, to arrive, at 75. Sweets unchanged at $4@4,50 ℔ brl for Baltimores and $5,50@6 for Jerseys.

PEACHES—The market is more active and firmer, with sales at $1@2 ℔ bushel.

PLUMS—$3@4 ℔ bushel.

PROVISIONS—The only change we have to make is in Hams, which have declined half a cent; otherwise the market is firm, especially for Lard, which is in light stock. Following are the ruling rates: Hams—Extra Sugar Cured, ℔ ℔, 15. Shoulders—Ex. Sugar Cured, 10½@11; Breakfast Bacon—Sugar Cured 15c; Dried Beef—Ex Sugar Cured, 17. Bacon—Shoulders, 10½c ℔ ℔; Short Rib Sides, 13½; Clear Sides, 14½c Mess Pork, ℔ brl, $25; Lard—Refined for summer use in trcs, 15⅜; hlf brls, 16¼; bkts, 16⅜; 3 lb. caddies, 16⅜; 5 lb. do, 16⅜, 3 lb. pails, 18, 5 lb. do, 17⅜; 6 ℔ do, 17⅜.

RAGS—Quiet and unchanged; woolen or refuse ½c; cotton, 2½@3.

SEEDS—Timothy seed, if anything, is a shade firmer but unchanged; $3@3 25. Flax Seed, $2@2.10. Clover nominal at $7.50@8

TALLOW—Country, 6½@7; city, 8.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, Sept. 4, 1874.

PIG IRON.

While, as intimated in our last report, the general tone of the market is hardly as strong as it was, and, notwithstanding quite a number of sales have been made recently at a slight decline, yet the outlook, present and prospectively, does not warrant the gloomy forebodings some are indulging in. It is true that the expectations of some of the more sanguine have not been realized, that the fall trade has not set in as early or as actively as they had counted upon, and it is also apparent that the mills generally will buy sparingly, and only to supply immediate wants, for the present at least, yet we can see no reason why there should not be at least an average trade during the balance of the year. The mills, with one or two exceptions, are all running, and, so far as we can learn, they have not the remotest idea of stopping again before the first of the year; some of them have fair stocks of pig while others are almost bare, and there is no reason apparent at this writing why the consumption should not be as large as ordinarily at this particular time. In regard to prices, there is a diversity of opinion; some millmen, particularly those who have little or no stock, are predicting a further decline, but consumers generally, from all that we can learn, incline to the belief that there will be but little change either way, that the market is likely to rule steady at about present rates during the balance of the year. Producers, however, are hopeful of being able to realize an advance for good standard forge irons—which are most sought after, and as the production has been very much curtailed all this year, there is no question but what the supply is comparatively light. Following sales were reported:

MANUFACTURED IRON.

The general situation has not varied much since the date of our last review. While it is true that the recent advance, as expected, has curtailed the demand somewhat, yet the mills generally are pretty well supplied with orders, the best evidence of which is that they are nearly all in operation, some of them working double turns, and, furthermore, they expect that by the time they have worked up what orders they have booked, that new ones will be coming in freely again, the advance to the contrary, notwithstanding. Manufacturers entertain no doubt but what they will be able to sell as much iron at 2.75@2.80 as they would have if the rates had been kept at 2.70; thus far there has been no disposition to 'cut,' and it is hoped and expected that prices will be sustained, so that a fair margin for profit can be realized. Even at the advance, we are reliably informed, that the margin is small, so that there is no room for 'cutting,' and this leads to the belief that the advance will be adhered to.

NAILS.

Trade continues in an unsatisfactory condition, so far as the producing interest is concerned, but it is hoped that there will soon be a change for the better. As noted in our last report, the complaint is not so much about a scarcity of orders as it is in regard to prices, which it is said are being cut to such an extent, particularly as regards the Western trade, that there is no margin for profit. There was a meeting of manufacturers on Thursday of this week, with a view of regulating prices but nothing definite was accomplished: a committee was appointed to whom the matter was referred, with instructions to report at an adjourned meeting which will take place next week. We understand that a few Wheeling firms are responsible mainly for the unsatisfactory condition of the market; it appears that in order to introduce their stock into certain places heretofore controlled by competing points, they are accepting orders at almost any price they can get.

SCRAP IRON.

Continues very dull, the general feeling does not appear to be as hopeful now as it was a month ago, although hopes of a fair fall trade are still entertained. Prices are nominally unchanged.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, Sept 4, 1874.

The general situation has not improved any since the date of our last report; indeed, the outlook is not as favorable now as it was in the early part of the week. Refined has further declined, with rumored sales at 11¼; it is said that some of the eastern speculators are selling 'short,' evidently with a view of 'bearing' the market, and that they are responsible for the reaction which set in yesterday. It is certain there are no sellers here at any such price, and there is a possibility that those who are now engaged in making these short sales, may have some difficulty when delivery day comes around in getting the oil. The shutting down 'project' which has been agitated for some time past, appears to be gaining ground among refiners, and if other competing points would consent to it, there is reason to believe that Pittsburgh would be almost, if not altogether, unanimous in regard to the matter. The trade here can see no other way of getting the market back into a position that will afford a margin for profit. There is no question but what the production is, and has been for some time past, in excess of the consumption: otherwise prices would not be as they are—down below actual cost of manufacture—and the only way open to put the market on a paying basis is to reduce the production and thus diminish the stock. Some think a suspension of six weeks necessary, while others again think that a month would be sufficient; however, no attempt will be made to carry out this contemplated project unless it is general. Cleveland, Philadelphia, New York and all other manufacturing points must come into it.

We have already noted the suspension of Jonas Sonneborn & Co., New York, but we now have some additional particulars in addition thereto. Mr. Sonneborn was formerly engaged in the dry goods business on Church street, and after the exertions of over twenty years he became one of the most prominent merchants in the trade. About one year and a half ago Mr. Sonneborn gave up his dry goods business and formed the present firm. They engaged in a general export business, and for a while were very successful. There principal trade was the export of petroleum in tins, which they obtained mostly from the Ontario Carbon Oil Company. The Company drew upon them extensively for money, and during the panic of last year they failed, being indebted to Sonneborn & Co. in the amount of $300,000. The firm bore up under this loss, and would have been able to have continued successfully if it had not been for the great shrinkage in prices which followed. The business was continued as usual, but large losses were encountered, and finally within the last few days some of the German banks which had been advancing money, stopped their credits, and the house was compelled to suspend. Mr. Sonneborn says that their chief liabilities were in Germany and that no one in the United States will suffer by the suspension, as the amounts due here were small. He had no idea of what his liabilities were, as it would depend upon what drafts were accepted or rejected. He is confident, however, that new connections can be made, and that the suspension will only be temporary.

The Barrel trade continues exceedingly dull, in sympathy with the stagnation in the oil business, and prices are entirely nominal.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CENTRAL STOCK YARDS EAST LIBERTY, FRIDAY August 4, 1874.

CATTLE.

There has been little or nothing done since the date of our last report (Thursday) and, furthermore, it is not expected that there will be any business after the day in question. From Thursday noon until the following Monday very few cattle change hands in this market, and there are but very few arrivals during the time in question excepting of through consignments. As noted in our report of yesterday, the market wound up stronger this week than it opened, although there was no quotable change in rates. Sales were made at 6½@7 for prime to extra, 5½@6 for medium to good and 3 @5c for common to prime grassers. Bulls quotable at 2@3. Texas and Cherokees 2.50@4 50, as to quality. If there were more good beeves and not so many grasshoppers trade would be much more satisfactory.

HOGS.

There was an increased demand for York hogs this morning, and sales were 6¾@7¼ for fair to good corn fed. Philadelphia hogs continue dull and prices have still further declined: we now quote at 8.15@8.25 for best tops. Grass hogs dull and nominal at 5½@5¾.

SHEEP.

The market continues quiet, as it usually is at this time in the week, but the pens are pretty well cleared and prices remain unchanged. Extra 100 ℔ fine 5½; prime 90@95 lbs, 5@5½; 80@85 lbs. 4½@4¾; 70@75 lbs, 3@3½.

Trade and the Fall in Wheat.

The effect upon trade of the fall in the price of wheat is the subject of speculation in financial circles on both sides the Atlantic. As we have already stated, it is not safe to argue from scanty premises in this matter. Reduction in the price of wheat seems logically enough to lead to reduced gains by the farmers, reduced expenditures by them, and so to a lessened volume of trade. This result may be reached, but the business of Chicago as yet shows no signs of it. There are some other elements of the the problem that deserve consideration. The corn that has been held back two years by the farmers for better prices has now all been marketed: the incoming crop is likely to be small, and to sell well. In other directions there may be larger receipts to offset the loss on wheat, as in oats, rye, and potatoes, which are higher than last year: furthermore, the farmers have been, comparatively so well remunerated for their labor the last year or two that they are abundantly able to pay for the supplies they need, even should the crops of this year yield less than they had hoped. But accepting it as a fact that cereals of all kinds are to be abundant and cheap, the world over, it can hardly be doubted that this will be a general benefit though not a benefit to the agricultural sections of the country. To these sections it will be disadvantageous. To other sections—to all who have food to buy, instead of food to sell—cheapness is an unspeakable boon. It relieves all classes of society of a part of the expenses of living. It places in their hands new means, the disbursements of which is certain to stimulate manufactures and trade.—Chicago Tribune.

The stage of water last evening was sixteen inches and still receding. Light rain on Thursday night, and the indications this P. M. are favorable for more. No arrivals or departures, and navigation is suspended.

The Messenger arrived at Cincinnati on Wednesday, and was announced to leave on a return trip yesterday.

—The Evansville 'Journal' of Thursday says: Captain Jim Routh, the Government contractor, informs us that Henderson Island Chute has been effectually obstructed, a row of piles having been driven across the chute from the head of the island to the Kentucky shore. Brush and rock will be deposited above the piles so as to effectually change the water to the outside of the island —— John Evans and Alex. McDavid, engineers of the B. D. Wood, are in the city, awaiting dispatches from Pittsburgh or Smithland. The Wood is laid up at the foot of Stewart's Island, with nine coal boats and one fuel boat, awaiting water. She is bound for New Orleans. Evans and partner will probably go down by the Gracey this evening.

—The owners of the John T. Moore, in New Orleans, advertise the fact that they will sell her cheap; that is, probably, twenty five thousand dollars.

—The St. Paul "Press," writing of Commodore Davidson, says 'it is hard to checkmate the old man.'

Collision of the Emma Graham and Gleaner—Decision of Inspectors.

The United States Local Inspectors at Cincinnati, as we have learned from the Gazette, have rendered their decision in the case of the collision of the passenger steamer Emma Graham and the steam ferry boat Gleaner, the former descending, and the latter ascending, the Ohio River, one or two miles below Maysville, Kentucky, between 8 and 9 o'clock P. M., of July 5, by which the Gleaner's port wheel was carried away and her guard was badly injured. The Inspectors say: We deem the collision was avoidable: the night being favorable, with ample room to have passed each other by taking either side, and a good depth of water. And in our opinion, had the signal lights of the Emma Graham been located as required by law the collision would have been avoided. And for this neglect of duty on the part of the commander, we hereby suspend the license of Isaac Bryson to act as master of steam vessels for thirty days from the date hereof.

The testimony also shows the steamer Gleaner on that occasion to have been navigated without having on board a licensed master as required by law. Capt. Linton, the licensed master, having remained at Aberdeen, O. We do, therefore, cause the license of William Linton, to act as master of steam vessels, to be suspended for thirty days from this date.

"And because of his negligence and unskillfulness, we do hereby cause the license of Thos. M. Beasley, to act as pilot of steam vessels, to be suspended for thirty days from the date hereof.

'And for his neglect and failure to observe the rules and regulations for the government of pilots, established in accordance with law, we do also hereby suspend the license of Peter Boughner, to act as pilot of steam vessels, for a period of thirty days from the date hereof.

HOME NEWS.

Pittsburgh Female College

Opens Sept. 9. Call from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Regimental Reunions.

The Eighty-fifth and One hundred and fourtieth Pa. Vol. will join in their annual reunion at Washington, Pa., on Tuesday, September 8th, at 2 P. M. Banquet in the evening. The historical orations will be delivered by Boyd Crumrine, Esq., and Major Thomas Henry.

Parish School.

It will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere, that a select school is to be opened on the 14th instant under the auspices of St. Johns (Episcopal) Parish, Lawrenceville. We learn from the Rector that all the English branches, French and music will be taught and that the teacher, whose services have been engaged, is entirely competent. This will be a great convenience to families in the neighborhood, and the enterprise should meet with prompt and liberal encouragement. Application may be made to Rev. Thos. A. Stevenson, Main, above Butler street.

Base Ball.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

The second game for the championship between the "Braddock" club and the Smoky City came off Thursday, and terminated as did the first, in an easy victory for the Braddock boys, and proving conclusively that the Smoky Citys are no match for them. The game was well played, and the fielding of the Braddocks was excellent—the best by far done in the park this season. The game was well and impartially umpired by Mr. Ingalis. The Smoky Cities were whitewashed the first five innings and stood a very decided chance of being served the same way for the next four, but for the interference of the crowd, who on seeing their favorites so badly beaten, were bound to raise a row, and be it said to the credit of the 'Xantha' club that certain of its numbers were the leaders of the disturbance. In the sixth inning the crowd hampered the catcher of the Braddocks, rendering it impossible for him to do anything, and through their help the Smoky Cities made six runs, which should have easily been a blank. The Braddock club were shamefully treated, and say with good reason, "We will never play in the Union Park again." Below is the number of runs made each inning:

Innings	1.	2.	3.	4.	5.	6.	Total.
Braddocks	5.	0.	3.	1.	2.	6.	17.
Smoky City	0.	0.	0.	0.	0.	6.	7.

B.

The Season of Change.

The fall is here. Fires and overcoats are comfortable, morning and evening. The guests at the springs and sea-side are journeying homeward. Camp-meetings and picnics are nearly all over. The martins have gone and the swallows are going. The sober aspect of autumn begins to appear. The foliage of the maple and the black gum is beginning to purple. The sumac and the clambering wild ivy are crimson. Squirrels are busy in the forest storing up their horde of nuts. The blue jay is noisy. The beak of the yellow-hammer resounds from the dead limb of the oak. Fields and meadows are growing russet. The wild grape presents its purpling clusters to the birds. The farmer drives his team afield, turning the fallow for his next wheat crop. People are storing away their coal and wood in anticipation of the coming winter. Summer apparel is being folded away carefully. Fall styles are attracting attention. Feather beds and mattresses are changing places. Pickles, preserves, and catsups are in order. The first of the faded leaves are falling. Flowers are beginning to wither. The golden rod and the meadow pink nod gracefully to the passing traveler. The stars of evening wear a bright luster. The grasshoppers and the katydids are more subdued at nightfall. There is a hush and stillness in the atmosphere, and in the early morning hours the lowing of the kine, the barking of the dog, the woodman's axe or the crack of the rifle may be heard with greater distinctness. These are some of the peculiarities which mark the passing season.

AMUSEMENTS.

Opening of the Opera House.

Mr. Charles Gaylor, the dramatist, author of "Fritz," &c., is in the city. He comes as the business manager of Mr. W. J. Florence, the popular comedian, who will inaugurate the coming season at the Opera House on Monday evening next. The management have shown good judgment in selecting so capital a comedian, and one so thoroughly popular with all play-goers as their opening attraction, for it is a guarantee that the send-off will be lively, genial and pleasant. Eileen Oge will be followed during the engagement by some of Mr. Florence's most charming specialties.

ALLEGHENY COMMITTEES.

Disposing of Business in the Various Departments.

The Health Committee of Allegheny Councils met last evening. The Health Officer was directed to notify the falmaster to not leave his wagons stand within the city limits.

Health Officer Hoch submitted his report, showing that he had abated 186 nuisances during the past month, and had paid $45 into the City Treasury.

Meat Inspector Zehnder reported that during the month he had condemned 1,400 pounds beef, 60 pounds veal, 25 pounds mutton, 50 pounds corned beef and two live calves, all of which had been exposed for sale. Report received.

The Market Committee appointed Chairman Stedeford to ascertain the cost of a safe to be placed in the office of the Market Clerk.

The Gas Committee ordered the erection of two new gas posts, and passed a resolution requesting the Gas Company to lay a gas main on Main street.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A Courtezan Attempts Self-Destruction.

Last evening Dr. Snively was summoned to the house of ill-repute on Third avenue, kept by Mrs. Ferguson, where he was informed that one of the inmates was dying, as supposed, from the effects of poison administered by her own hands. When the physician arrived he found a young girl named Minnie Adams evidently suffering from poison. On being questioned, she confessed that she had determined to take her life, and with this object in view had swallowed a large quantity of arsenic, which she had procured at a druggist's store during the afternoon. The physician soon saw that prompt measures were necessary to save the woman's life. He administered powerful emetics which soon had the desired effect, and after watching the would-be suicide for some time, he left the house with the satisfaction of knowing that her life had been saved. The reason for the rash act is said to have been despondency at the supposed ill-treatment of a man, for whom she claimed to have cherished some affection.

MORRIS AND BROWN.

Arrangements Completed for a Race on the 25th Inst.

The arrangements for the race between Evan Morris of this city and George Brown, of Halifax, have been completed. Yesterday morning Chas. Manning, President of the Clipper Boat club, to which Morris belongs, received a dispatch from Will. Craigen, Secretary of the Halifax club, stating that they would guarantee Morris $500, expense money, and that the articles of agreement had been sent on by mail. Their deposit has also been forwarded for a race on the 25th inst. The articles of agreement are the same as those which governed the Scharff Brown contest at Springfield, only differing in this, that the two turning buoys shall be located twenty-five feet apart instead of forty feet. The race will therefore take place on Saturday, the twenty-fifth inst., on the Kenebenasis river, N. B. The stakes are to be $2,000, in gold, a side, making a purse of $4,000. Morris will leave the city on next Thursday, and the only Pittsburgher who will accompany him is Amos Siebert, a member of the Clipper club, an oarsman, who will act as Morris' trainer. They will go by way of Boston and will reach the course in time to have ten days practice. Morris will row in a new shell built by Nessinger.

THE NEW STOCK YARDS.

The Heirs of John McGinnies and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

In the District Court yesterday an argument was heard in the case of the heirs of the late John McGinniss vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Major A. M. Brown appeared for the plaintiffs and Mr. Hampton for the defendants. It will be recollected that in 1872, certain property in the neighborhood of Walls' Station was condemned for stock yard purposes for the use of the railroad company, a part of which belonged to Mr. McGinnis. The purpose of the railroad company was to remove the stock yards from their present site at East Liberty to a more suitable spot, and they subsequently made arrangements for having the stock from the Eastern and Western railroads centering at the Union Depot, transferred to these yards. The purchase money on the property was paid by the Company, but the owners were dissatisfied, and some months ago commenced proceedings in the District Court with a view of recovering possession, on the ground that the railroad company were not making the use of the land for which it was condemned, devoting it to agricultural purposes instead of to stock yard purposes. After the arguments Judges Ewing and White stated that they did not consider sufficient evidence had been produced to make it right for an order of surrender to be made, and declined to grant the prayer of the defendants.

SERIOUS ASSAULT.

A Party of Italians Engage in an Affray in a Beer Saloon—One of the Number Badly Injured.

Shortly before midnight last night a party of Italians were drinking in a saloon opposite Municipal Hall, which is situated next door to the Keystone House. Some trouble arose among the persons present, and, after angry words had passed, a free fight was inaugurated, in which beer glasses and other missiles were freely thrown. One of the party named Bazzaranco, in the course of the melee, was struck three or four times on the head with a glass, and sustained very serious injuries. He fell to the floor of the saloon in an unconscious condition, and his assailants, fearing that he was dead, beat a hasty retreat from the rear of the bar-room. A citizen, who had heard the noise caused by the fight, entered the saloon and took charge of the injured man. Just as he was being led out of the place, the police arrived and assisted to take Bazzaranco to the Central Station House. Here he stated that the party who struck him was a fellow Italian named Fugini. Dr. Dickson was sent for, and on his arrival he dressed the man's wounds, which consisted of three very deep and long cuts on the scalp. It is considered doubtful whether or not the skull has been slightly fractured. After his wounds had been dressed Bazzaranco was sent to his home in Virgin alley. The police made no arrests.

A man named Simon Miller, who was employed at Shoenberger's mill, while working, was struck on the head by an immense plank of timber. He fell to the ground in an insensible condition, and some of his fellow workmen picked him up, and removed him to his home. Medical assistance was summoned, and his condition was at once pronounced to be a very critical one. Every thing was done for him to relieve all sufferings and if possible save his life. These efforts were, however, unsuccessful, and about half past 9 o'clock last night, he died. The Coroner was notified and will no doubt hold an inquest this morning.

THE WATER EXTENSION.

An Important Statement From Chief Engineer Kennedy—The Services of Assistant Engineer Shields Dispensed With—Mr. McClelland Placed in Charge of Hiland Reservoir—Other Business Transacted.

A regular meeting, and an interesting one too, of the Water Committee, was held last night in City Hall, Mr. Thos. S. Mitchell presiding. The first business transacted was in relation to the old water works.

Mr. Hoeveler appeared before the committee and asked, in behalf of the citizens on Rebecca street, that the Water Committee allow them pipes and they would lay them at their own expense, as they want them put down before the Street is paved. The chairman decided the matter out of order as the law requires that pipes shall be laid under contract.

The difficulty with Messrs. Snyder & Co., contractors far the boilers, relative to mud drums, was again brought up, and after some discussion an estimate in favor of the Contractors for $2,269 18 was approved, but not until after the passage of a resolution, which was agreed to by Snyder & Co., that the right of the city to a reduction on mud drums should not be prejudiced by granting the estimate.

STATEMENT FROM MR. KENNEDY.

Mr. Kennedy presented a statement to the effect that among other things which he would submit to the consideration of the committee, was the estimate on Hiland reservoir, which contains this notation by Mr. Shields, the engineer in charge;

"In consequence of admissions and statements of the Chief Engineer, and of the late engineer in charge of Hiland reservoir, made to a sub-committee of the Water Committee, at a meeting held August 24th, 1874, showing an existing large over estimate of earth excavation, no earth work is herewith returned for the month of August, 1874."

Mr. Kennedy stated further as follows:

The note was a rather strange one in view of the fact that Mr. Shields returned, under his signature an estimate of earth excavation done during the month of May, as follows: Under the heading "Total quantities estimated to date 194,696 cubic yards of earth excavation, &c." "Total quantities of this estimate 5,745 cubic yards of earth excavation for work done during the month of June, 1874," and returned under the heading, "Total quantities estimated to date 205,547 cubic yards of earth excavation, and the total quantity of this estimate was 10,851 cubic yards of earth excavation." For work done during the month of July he returned under the heading, "Total quantity estimated to date 223,195 cubic yards of earth excavation, &c., leaving for this month 17,648 cubic yards of excavation." His signature on each of the above described estimates sets forth as follows: "I hereby certify that I have carefully made the accompanying estimates, and that the work has been done in accordance with the provisions of the contract signed, &c." If Mr. Shields had done what he represented as having done that is "carefully made the accompanying estimates" in any one of the three estimates made by him, he would have been able to tell you the exact condition of the work at the time, and to determine whether it had been over-estimated or under-estimated when he took charge of it, but by his own confession as made by the note appended to his estimate he

ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE HAS NOT

at any one time done what he has three times certified that he has done, that is "carefully examined the accompanying estimate." It was from a knowledge of the fact that he had not made his estimate in a proper manner, so as to determine to a certainty the "total quantity estimated to date" that I withheld my signature to his estimate for the month of June until requested to sign them by the committee in session, and it was for the same reason that I positively withheld my signature on his estimate for the month of July. Mr. Shields confesses that he does not know the status of the work that has been under his charge for the last three and one-half months, during which time if any over-estimates had been made, when he took charge, he should have discovered and rectified them, but as the case now stands if the work is found to be over-estimated, it will be impossible to fix the blame for such over-estimates on any other person than Mr. Shields himself, as the mere fact of his presenting his first estimate fixes the responsibility of any over-estimates that may now be found, on him, as it was clearly his duty, on taking charge of the work and on making each and every estimate to thoroughly measure the entire work.

In conclusion the Chief Engineer asked the committee to order the work to be remeasured, as otherwise it would be impossible to settle fully with the contractor.

HOW THEY FELT.

The communication was received and filed, and considerable astonishment was manifested by the committee at Mr. Kennedy's statement. The committee decided to have a full measurement made of the work done on Hiland reservoir thus far.

The Hiland estimate amounted to $6,765 31 for work and paving, and that was approved.

Messrs. Siebert and Glass, of the Howard-Lowry investigating committee, appeared and asked for a force of four men to help them in digging to the bottom of the foundations, which they are investigating, so that the work already done can be measured. Some objection was made as it was said the committee had no right to pay for men, for such work. It was, however, decided to detail the men asked for.

STONE QUARRYING.

Mr. Jacob H. Walter, contractor for Hiland reservoir, asked that a resolution preventing any further quarrying until the stone at Haight's run had been used, be rescinded. He represented that by the time the stone there was used, the time suitable for quarrying would be past, and the work would be delayed in consequence. The request was granted.

A resolution was presented requesting the City Attorney to give an opinion, whether the stone quarried and delivered at Haight's Run, for use on Brilliant Hill Reservoir, on which estimates have been made and paid on account of Brilliant Hill, can now be used in Hiland Reservoir, as work has been stopped on Brilliant Hill. Passed.

The estimate of James Reese for work done on the pumping engines for the month of August, amounting to $2,860 42, was approved.

The contractor was allowed a supplemental estimate of $1,656 for stone put in place on Hiland reservoir.

Mr. Meyran presented a petition for water pipe on Thum street, Eleventh ward, from Caldwell street, a distance of four hundred feet. It was refused as there are a number of similar petitions on file, and the work cannot be done for lack of funds.

MR. SHIELD'S SERVICES DISPENSED WITH.

Mr. Milligan, of the sub-committee appointed to investigate the charges against Engineer Shields, in charge of Hiland reservoir, reported that they went on the grounds and find that the allegations of mismanagement by Mr. Shields are sustained by the facts, and that it was done either through incompetency or negligence. As grave responsibilities are attached to the position, they recommend that a change be made and a competent man employed.

The report was received and adopted without a dissenting voice. It was signed by the committee, Messrs. J. G. Milligan, C. Meyran and Wm. McClurg.

Mr. Milligan presented a resolution instructing the Clerk to notify Mr. Shields of his discharge, and Mr. Robert McClelland, in charge of Brilliant reservoir, which has been abandoned for the present, be placed in charge of Hiland reservoir until a successor to Mr. Shields is appointed. Mr. Shields' salary is to go on until October 1st. The resolution was passed.

Chief Engineer Kennedy recommended that no puddling or concrete be placed at the bottom of Herron's Hill reservoir, as the natural rock there makes a solid bottom for the water, and neither puddling nor concrete would add anything to making it water-tight. This would save the city about $10,000. The recommendation was adopted.

On motion, adjourned.

TERMINATED FATALLY.

The Tragic Death of Young Williams.

On Monday morning the particulars were published in the GAZETTE of the shooting by his own hand of young D. Charles Williams. It will be remembered that Williams about 10 o'clock on Sunday morning went to the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Jones, corner of Federal and Lydia Streets, Allegheny. A few minutes after, the report of a pistol was heard in the room which the young man occupied and when his relations ran to the chamber they found Williams lying upon the bed bleeding from a wound in his left side, near the lower ribs, which he had inflicted with his own hands. Physicians were summoned and it was then thought that internal hemorrhage had set in and that he could not live till morning. On Monday, however, he rallied and until yesterday morning hopes of his recovery were entertained. At that time, however, he began to sink, and his life was at once despaired of. He lingered till about one o'clock yesterday afternoon, when he died. No coroner's inquest will be necessary, as the three attending physicians have given a certificate as to the cause of his death.

Young Williams was well known in this city and Allegheny. He was for some time a clerk in the drugstore of McLarran & McKennan, corner of Fifth avenue and Smithfield street. His last business engagement was with Mr. Means, druggist, corner of North avenue and Federal street, Allegheny. No cause for the rash act has yet been given.

Chandeliers and Gas Fixtures of Great Beauty and Variety—Plumbing and Gas Fitting in all its Branches—Weldon & Kelly's Specialties.

Few persons have any conception of the magnitude and extent of the trade conducted by some of our business houses, and as a consequence when any article of unusual quality or beauty is required, they hie away to New York or Philadelphia to supply their wants, and often greatly to their disprofit and disappointment. But there is one business house that brings Eastern cities to our very doors, not only in the extent of their wares, their quality and finish, but also in their prices, and it only needs a casual inspection of their goods to assure the most incredulous of their superior facilities for competing with the East in goods and cheapness of price. We refer to the establishment of Messrs. Weldon & Kelly, No. 147 Wood street, who have an immense and unsurpassed selection of chandeliers and gas fixtures of the latest styles and varied colors, antique and artistic in design and superbly finished. They have, without doubt, the largest stock and the best assortment of these goods ever brought to this city. To say that their assortment is complete, is but a tame expression, and we should say it is extravagantly full. They have also Patent Gas Saving Burners, Gas Heating and Cooking Stoves, Silvered Patent Reflectors, Lava Tips, Tapers and Porcelain Globes. Their patrons are assured that they can be furnished with fixtures ready for use at a lower figure than the same will cost in the East. Call and examine. Branch store 3804 Butler street.

A Flourishing Business House.

Henry Ward Beecher has said that when his congregation was dull and listless, he looked into himself and found that he was the cause of the dullness, because he had failed to provide from his treasures the mental food requisite to attract the minds of his hearers. So with a business house which complains of stagnation in trade and the lack of patronage. The reason is most likely to be found in the proprietors themselves, as not offering sufficient inducements either in quality and variety of goods, or in prices to stimulate and tempt purchasers to patronize their establishment. It is a well known fact that some houses have no cause of complaint, and among this number is the wholesale and retail hardware establishment of Messrs. Lane Brothers, corner of Liberty and Sixth, for instead of keeping a meager assortment of goods in their line, they have an assortment that for extent and variety is unsurpassed, while the prices are made to accord with the times. They have an immense assortment of Pocket Knives, Knives and Forks, Spoons, Scissors, Axes, Shovels, Locks, Hinges, Nails, Files, Carpenters,' Blacksmiths' and Agricultural Tools, all of the finest qualities of material and perfect workmanship, which those, who desire articles of unsurpassed excellence, and of the fairest prices, would do well to call and examine.

The Postoffice Site.

The location of the postoffice site has not had any effect in advancing prices at the fashionable Merchant Tailoring House of B. Tiegel, No. 53, Smithfield. If you want an extra suit go and see him.

ALLEGHENY FIFTH WARD SCHOOL.

The Renovated Building Thrown Open to the Public—Addresses From Well Known Educators.

During the summer vacation the Board of School Directors of the Fifth ward of Allegheny have had their elegant brick building renovated from "turret to foundation stone," and last night it was thrown open for the inspection of the citizens of the ward and of visitors also. In the interior there is not a square inch that has not felt the painters magic touch and the result is a vast and important addition to the attractiveness of the school rooms. In these days, as the standard of common school education is being lifted higher and higher, directors feel pressing upon them the imperative obligation of making the school building and rooms as cheerful, attractive and home like as possible, for it has been long since recognized that pleasant surroundings prove to the pupil almost as great an incentive to study as the stirring words of the teacher, or the natural ambition to excel, unless overreached by natural laziness, that exists in the mind of nearly every scholar. With its beautiful edifice, ornamented within and without, and an efficient corps of directors and instructors, the Fifth ward should make for itself a good record during the term about to commence, and it doubtless will. Under the direction of Captain W. C. Cook, the walls and ceilings have been calsomined a modest, pleasing color, the entire wood work partially repainted, and all revarnished, the shutters rehung, the black boards repainted, and everything else done that, in the opinion of the directors, was necessary to complete a thorough improvement. The exterior of the building, the yard, and out houses have not been neglected either, but bear evidence of the touch of the same hand that wrought the change within. Last night the school house was illuminated from top to bottom, and the large crowd of visitors spent considerable time inspecting the different rooms and commenting upon their added beauty. The cost of the improvements is about two thousand dollars. After the apartments had all been examined the visitors repaired to the hall, where an hour or more was spent in social and intellectual intercourse, to the gratification of all present. Judge Park in a few remarks referred to the alterations that had been made, and said that he trusted the action of the directors in ordering them would meet the approbation of those who footed the bill, inasmuch as it was for the benefit of their children. County Superintendent Douthett was elected president of the meeting, and made a brief speech in which he detailed the progress made, within the last score of years, in the science of education, and predicted a still more brilliant future for it. Miss Byers then favored the audience with a musical selection, the "Wild Birds Waltz," which was given with a proficiency, grace and delicacy of touch that elicited loud applause. Professor Conroy, principal of the Fifth ward schools, followed in a neat address, after which the Allegheny Quartette club gave the "Dawning of a Better Day." It was rendered in such excellent style that the audience demanded a repetition, and as an encore the club sang "Close the Shutters, Willie's Dead," a tender song, the music of which is far prettier than the words. City Superintendent Davis made a brief, pertinent speech, only occupying the floor a few moments, when he gave way to Deputy State Superintendent Curry who talked for half an hour in an intertaining, instructive way, earnestly advocating the educational interest of the State, detailing his daily experiences in his travels through the various sections of the Commonwealth, and telling of the rising popular interest in the cause of common schools. A current of humor, characteristic of the speaker, and a pleasant, confidential style of talking made his remarks as attractive as they were instructive. After speeches from a number of other gentlemen the meeting adjourned.

"CAMP MEETINGS."

What "Our Church Paper" Thinks of the Institution.

"Our Church Paper" of this city, the organ of the Reformed Church contributes its quota to the camp meeting literature of the day as follows:

"Religious dissipation is another element entering into the camp meeting custom. Religious people like some change from the humdrum life of home. Year in and year out sameness must be broken. A pious picnic is for them a good thing. An excursion of some miles, lasting for a few days or a week, will give a new turn to the dull duties of home. It is not as expensive as a season at the springs, or a sojourn at the sea shore, or a trip to Europe. Camp life also brings together mainly people of the same tastes and general habit of thought, so that the social side of the camp meeting has its attractiveness for many. Praying and singing together prepares them for a melting into oneness, and the young folks, especially, are piously drawn toward each other in "a pure bundle of love."

"Beside the devotional meetings, there are times for visiting, for interchanging calls, for promenades and blissful courtships. In the tents you can see this going on. Between the tent doors and the seats for the congregation there is a space for promenades. Hundreds are seen here marching around and commingling, at allowable times, as this only can be done at a camp meeting. Outside the tented streets, happy little knots of two or more stray hither and thither in moonlight or shade, taking delicious recreation, which could not be indulged in at home.

"And then, the roughs, the irreverent sports, who came to see and mock, but who seldom remain to pray, make up no inconsiderable part of the transient mass at nearly all camp meetings. The devil always sets up an opposition interest to every religious enterprise. So the very occasion of a religious camp meeting, for the promotion of piety, devotion and a higher spiritual life, is used by the enemy to promote his cause. It is sometimes argued that the incidental and attendant evils growing out of camp meetings, and going along with them, make it very questionably whether it is best to hold any such assemblies.

"But the good that is done! Yes, there is surely good made to come out of it. God is able to make even the wrath of man to praise Him. Some of the most earnestly pious and devoutly religious people go to camp meeting, with the view of doing good. Not all, however, who go there are such. Nor are all who come way from thence made such, by any means. Some are indeed hopefully converted to the better life. But from all that we have ever seen or learned concerning the practical workings of modern camp meetings, we are of the settled conviction that the general moral and religious spirit of dissipation, among the young especially, for miles around, of the community in which they are held, is rather detrimental than serviceable to the cause of Christ."

A Woman's Suffrage Convention Decides.

At a meeting of the Woman's Suffrage Convention it was, with great unanimity of sentiment, decided that they are strenuously opposed to all the "lords of creation," except one, whom they consider to be a genuine benefactor of the weaker vessel, and in acknowledgement of his services, each member agreed to use and recommend others to do the same, the broom manufactured by him as being labor saving, durable and cheap. They bound themselves to use no other than the Wardorff broom. No good housewife should be without the broom. Sold by grocers generally. The ne plus ultra of brooms. Half its virtues must remain untold.

The Latest Fish Story.

Fish are to be preferred to meats for several reasons. Better than beef as a brain food, and better than pork as a producer of heat in the system and not productive of the injurious effects upon the digestive organs, which attends the free use of beef and pork. But the latest fish story will be told you by Mr. B. Fulpress, of No. 45 Diamond Market, Pittsburgh, who has at his stand in the market, daily arrivals of delicious fresh fish from the lakes and from Eastern waters. The epicure will find at his stall every name and quality of the finny tribe. Prices low.

Not Included in the Brooklyn Complication.

There is not a line in the whole proceedings of the Beecher-Tilton scandal to show that Mr. R. A. Hall of No. 79 Fourth avenue was either directly or indirectly implicated in the affair, but on the contrary we have the evidence of many of the best ladies of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, that he has on hand the finest Assortment of Human Hair goods, to be found in either city. Curls, Switches and all ornamental hair goods of whatever name or kind, with a great variety of toilet articles, as cheap as the cheapest.

Richard's Always Himself.

But never more so than when he can please his patrons in a buggy, carriage or barouche, which he is always sure to do, when they call at his Repository, Nos. 167, 169 and 171 Penn avenue. We venture that no establishment of the kind can be found superior to this, either in extent, variety, style, material, finish or workmanship. A most excellent assortment and prices so low that the humblest laborer can afford to become the possessor of a carriage either for business or pleasure. A very good buggy can be had for $125.

Furniture—New Styles—Cheap.

LOYALHANNA CAMP MEETING.

Tuesday's Services.

LOYALHANNA CAMP MEETING,
September 1, 1874.

Tuesday morning, at 9 A. M., an experience meeting was led by John Bruce of Blairville. Mr. Bruce has been known in Methodist circles for nearly half a century as a most devoted and efficient worker.

At 10:30 A. M., Rev. McIntyre, one of the young ministers present, preached a good sermon on the "Great salvation provided for us in the gospel."

At 3 P. M., Rev. Vernon, of East Liberty, preached on "The glory which Christ gives His people." This discourse produced a fine effect, and at its close several presented themselves at the altar as penitents.

At 7 P. M., Rev. W. Lynch preached a practical, soul-stirring sermon. At its close from sixty to seventy penitents bowed, as seekers, at the altar of prayer; and before the hour of dismission most of them professed to find peace in believing. Seldom has such a scene been witnessed in the history of camp meetings. B.

IT IS USELESS TO THROW MONEY AWAY

In buying Tin Cans, Jars or Crockery Ware to put up Tomatoes or fruit for winter use, when you can have Tomatoes put up in three pound cans, warranted first-class in every particular, delivered at your home, free of charge, during the winter months, at prices which our oldest housekeepers say is twenty-five per cent. lower than the actual cost of Cans, Tomatoes, Sealing Wax and cartage—not counting the cost of trouble and time and the probability of some being unfit for use. By ordering now you can buy first-class three pound can Tomatoes at the following very low prices:

1 Dozen Cans Tomatoes	$2 30 per Dozen
2 Dozen Cans Tomatoes	2 25 per Dozen
3 Dozen Cans Tomatoes	2 23 per Dozen
4 Dozen Cans Tomatoes	2 21 per Dozen
5 Dozen Cans Tomatoes, or more	2 20 per Dozen

Thus the public will see that it does not cost as much for the Tomatoes canned and ready for use as is really spent in buying the Tomatoes and cans, not to look at the labor and outlay of money.

I am also prepared to furnish CANNED PEACHES, PEARS, PLUMS, CORN, and all kinds of CANNED GOODS, at prices below the lowest.
